

Quantitative data analysis – dr Pawel Rydzewski

Course duration: one semester

Number of ECTS credits: 4.0

During the course, students will learn the basics of quantitative data analysis, using IBM SPSS. Data set of International Social Survey Program (ISSP) will be used, based on the research realized in many countries around the world. Students also will learn PSPP - a freeware that can be considered as a replacement for IBM SPSS for simpler applications.