

Suggested topics of doctoral dissertations in the academic year 2020/2021

1. Fear in the political culture of the Roman Republic (3rd c. B.C. – 1st c. BC.).
2. What freedom to seek? Roman slaves of the end of the republic in the face of the idea of freedom.
3. The Equites Romani in the Service of the Roman Republic.
4. The Phenomenon of Military Supplies in the Roman Army in the Period of the Republic and the Empire.
5. Power elites and blood ties in the Central Europe X-XIV century.
6. Misery, poverty, and deprivation in Polish villages at the end of the Middle Ages and beginnings of modern times (XV-XVI cc.).
7. The Poles in Volhynia, Podolia, and Kiev region in the nineteenth century.
8. Landed gentry in the Kingdom of Poland in the years 1864-1914.
9. Socio-economic history of the Polish lands during the partitions.
10. In search of identity. Antiquity in Polish Olympism and sports movement (1867- 1939).
11. Ancient traces in the Polish epigraphy to the end of the 19th c.
12. The Ukrainian question in the policies of the Polish Sanation governments.
13. Camp of National Unity in Lublin Voivodeship over the period 1937-1939.
14. Between slogans and practice: The policy adopted by the Polish communist authorities towards the Ukrainian population in the Lublin Voivodship after Second World War.
15. Polish Student's Association in Lublin Voivodeship over the period 1950-1973.
16. People's Poland. Society - politics – culture.
17. Polish-German stereotypes: their genesis, forms of appearing, and influence on the historiography.
18. The influence of historical thinking about the past: the analysis of narrative structure imaging.
19. History in public space (included historical museums, historical heritage, historical politics) - theory and practice.
20. Digital Humanistic in theory and practice.
21. The History of the 20th Century as a subject of multimedia narrative in video games.
22. The processes of growing and archiving documentation as factors shaping the resource of sources for the history of the XX-XXI century.
23. The operation of archival institutions in the XX-XXI century.