NEWSLETTER

No. 7

November 2020

Dear Readers,

In the current issue of the newsletter, we would like to introduce the remaining members of the Academic Board working in various academic centres located in Poland, France, Finland and Japan. Moreover, we are more than happy to announce the results of the evaluation process conducted by Index Copernicus as well as to include the details concerning the submission of the articles to Volume 7 of "Educatio Nova" (to be published in 2022).

We are also pleased to announce that we will soon start the editorial process of Volume 6 which examines the topic of "Children and Adolescents in Scientific Discourse". We have received more than 40 manuscripts from Poland and abroad, which are currently under review. The Contents of Volume 5, to be published soon, will be presented in the subsequent newsletter.

We encourage you to visit our Facebook profile and leave a like!

Enjoy your reading!
