Legal English/English for Law: Our dream for the future. Thanks to UMCS Lublin, Poland

Zaktualizowano: 16 godzin temu

We want to thank, unreservedly, the University Maria-Curie Skłodowska, Lublin, Poland, for its fantastic support for what we are trying to do. We think it is at the cutting edge of legal English/English for law training in Europe - and beyond - and are delighted to offer whatever support and resources we can to it.

Our free January web workshops - which are just a start - want to take you forward. We want you to succeed - that is why we exist. When we made our January workshops public, who should want to sign up for them but.....the incredible UMCS students, who have supported us from day one.

We believe that UMCS has a vision which extends beyond Lublin....and Poland. We want to embrace this vision - in the wider European context - and do whatever we can to take it forward. We know that other European universities, and students, embrace this vision.

From day one, we said that we would partner, gladly, with any legal English/English for law provider that gets the vision we are trying to promote. We are proud to partner, in whatever way we can, with UMCS, Lublin. But we think this is only the start.
