

Instructions for preparation of Individual Research Projects in the chemical sciences branch including the following:

- 1) The Individual Research Project is prepared by the doctoral student in coordination with a supervisor/supervisors.
- 2) The Individual Research Project includes:
 - a) The research topic including the research objective (max 400 words),
 - b) The detailed research program including the time-limit for its accomplishment (covering the education period in the Doctoral School),
 - c) The schedule of doctoral thesis elaboration – appointing the time of its presentation),
 - d) The planned effects of the research in the form of scientific papers or a monograph (at least one paper – minimum 70 points from the list of Ministry of Education and Science journals/ monograph – minimum 80 points from the list of Ministry of Education and Science scientific publishers),
 - e) The planned active participation in scientific conferences,
 - f) The information whether and where the doctoral student will apply for additional means for research project realization,
 - g) The planned activities aimed at development of doctoral student's qualifications for carrying out research eg. specialist courses, training courses, internships).

Dyrektor Instytutu

prof. dr hab. Małgorzata Grabarczyk

