

Reinitialise

REINITIALISE

Preserving fundamental rights in the use of digital technologies for e-health services

Online scientific workshop

On April 26th, 2022

Counteracting digital dis(mis)information and other cyber threats in the pandemic times:
preventive and corrective actions towards strengthening civil society, protecting human rights and human well-being

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 952357.

10.00 – 11.15

Agnieszka Demczuk (University of Maria Curie-Skłodowska) Introduction: the phenomenon of digital dis(mis)information and its harmful influence on human rights and human well-being

Juliusz Sikorski (The Jacob of Paradies University) The social implications of COVID-19 associated infodemic

Discussants: Alessia Bertolazzi, Benedetta Giovanola, Alessio Bartolacelli

11.15 – 11.30 Coffee Break

11.30 – 13.00

Aleksandra Monkos (Adam Mickiewicz University, Demagog Association) NGOs versus disinformation: what can we learn from Polish and Ukrainian experiences

Piotr Mateusz Bobołowicz (Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, StopFake.org) The role of the StopFake.org - against disinformation disrupting the dialogue between societies

Discussants: Alessia Bertolazzi, Benedetta Giovanola, Alessio Bartolacelli

13.00 – 14.30

Maia Mazurkiewicz (Alliance for Europe) Fact-checking is not enough. How positive communication can prevent change of attitudes influenced by disinformation

Piotr Toczyski (Maria Grzegorzewska University), Magdalena Dąbkowska (EAAD-Best.eu) EAAD-Best (WP5). Digital mental health tool and website: initial lessons from implementation and transfer in 8 countries

Discussants Alessia Bertolazzi, Benedetta Giovanola, Alessio Bartolacelli