

INVITATION TO POST-CONFERENCE PUBLICATION (LUBLIN 19 - 20.04.2023)

IN THE SERIES POST-CONFERENCE :

30 YEARS OF THE VISEGRAD GROUPS TITLED:

The war in Ukraine and the policy of the V4 countries

Deadline: 15.05.2023

Authors Guidelines

1. Length of papers: up to 40,000 characters (without footnotes and bibliography) / 10-20 pages
2. Papers (electronic file in .doc or .rtf format) should be sent to ewelinakancik@o2.pl.
3. The paper should contain an abstract (up to 500 characters), key words and short bio of the paper's author (including affiliation and ORCID, e-mail address).
4. The graphic material (like graphics or photos) should be prepared and sent as separate files in .jpg file format.
5. The style of document: font: Times New Roman 12, line spacing 1.5.
6. The paper should be divided into several parts (like introduction, main parts and conclusions).
7. References should be prepared in the following way:

Discursive and explanatory footnotes should be put on the bottom of each page; bibliographic references given in square brackets in the text, in the following order: author's name, year of publication, page number(s); e.g.: [Street 2003: 45-46].

The paper should contain a bibliography prepared according to the following rules:

- books: Melucci, A. 1996. Challenging Codes: Collective Action in the Information Age, Cambridge University Press, Cambridge.
 - works in an anthology, a collection by several authors, with one or more editors and/or compilers: Dahlgren, P. 2001. The Transformation of Democracy? [in:] New Media and Politics, B. Axford, R. Huggins (ed.), SAGE Publications, London.
 - papers in scientific journals: Kahn, R. Kellner, D. 2004. New media and internet activism: from the 'Battle of Seattle' to blogging, "New Media & Society", vol.6(1).
 - press articles: Stasiński, M. 2008. Blogerka kontra Fidel, „Gazeta Wyborcza” 6-7.12.
 - internet sources: Cleaver, H. 1997. The Zapatista Effect: The Internet and the Rise of an Alternative Political Fabric, <http://uppingtheanti.org/node/1764> (access 12.1.2009)
8. Each chapter must have a separate bibliography
 9. Finally, information about the author