

ERASMUS DAY 2024

UMCS ERASMUS+

MARCH 14, 2024

INVITATION

EMBRACING DIVERSITY
EMPOWERING EDUCATORS FOR INCLUSIVE TEACHING

Dear Partners,

The Faculty of Education and Psychology at Maria Curie-Skłodowska University in Lublin, Poland, is hosting the fourth edition of Erasmus+ Day. This online event aims to provide a platform for educators to reflect and exchange experiences, with the goal of understanding, appreciating, and effectively integrating diversity in education. The focus is on building educators' skills in inclusive teaching to create a more welcoming and diverse educational environment. This web meeting invites academics and researchers in education and psychology to exchange practical knowledge and explore potential opportunities for collaboration. Participation is open to anyone with an interest in this topic.

Call for Proposals

Participants are invited to present their universities and refer to the main theme of Erasmus+ Day 2024: Embracing Diversity. Empowering Educators for Inclusive Teaching.

Support areas to discuss:

- Inclusion in the classroom - strategies and practices supporting students with different learning styles and abilities.
- Culture and language - how to deal with language and cultural diversity in the classroom and leverage it as a strength.
- Technological tools for inclusion - how modern technologies can support teachers in adapting materials to the needs of diverse students.
- The universities and school's role in shaping tolerance attitudes - how education can contribute to shaping attitudes of tolerance and acceptance among students.
- Creating a safe environment for all students - how to build an atmosphere of respect and safety that promotes acceptance of diversity.
