I LUBLIN SYMPOSIUM ON INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY LAW

International Conference „Legal professions in the environment of modern digital transformations. Challenges and dilemmas”

March 6-8, 2024, Lublin (Poland)

Maria Curie-Skłodowska University (Lublin), Faculty of Law and Administration (Lublin)
&
European Association of Lawyers (AEA-EAL), Bruxelles, Belgium

📍 Place: University Auditorium (1st floor), Faculty of Law and Administration, Maria Curie-Skłodowska

Abstract:

The main objective of the Symposium is to present and exchange the latest scientific findings in the emerging field of IT law. The initiation of the Symposium with the theme of contemporary digital transformations and their impact on the practice of public law is a clear signal (to the national and international legal communities) of the necessity to deepen and re-contextualise previous scientific and practical experiences.

The agenda includes, in particular:

- 1. issues concentrating around the legal and organisational challenges facing the legal professions of public interest, the public administration,*
 - 2. the issue of cyber security,*
 - 3. the use of artificial intelligence (AI) in the provision of legal assistance,*
 - 4. modern algorithmic solutions and their impact on the legal services market,*
 - 5. digital transformation in the social sphere,*
 - 6. the current digital challenges faced by practitioners of various legal professions (in the context of emerging or possibly emerging threats)*
- taking into account the level of normative regulation in the face of ongoing digital change.*
