

Wednesday, 11 September, Field trips
Lublin – Zamość

The meeting time 7:30

Departure from Lublin 8:00

Parking next to Faculty of Political Science and Journalism, Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, street Głęboka 45

(Wydział Politologii i Dziennikarstwa Uniwersytetu Marii Curie-Skłodowskiej - Google Maps)

FIELD TRIP 1. Landscape changes in the Polish-Ukrainian borderland related to World War II and its consequences in Eastern Roztocze

Lublin – Beżec – Siedliska – Dziewięcierz – Stare Brusno – Nowe Brusno – Narol – Zamość

Coordinators: Ewa Skowronek, Renata Krukowska

FIELD TRIP 2. How the landscape of Poland's eastern borderlands was shaped (the Roztocze example)

Lublin – Sąsiadka – Szczepreszyn – Kawęczyn – Nowe Brusno – Radruż – Zamość

Coordinators: Krzysztof Szpara, Teresa Brzezinska-Wójcik

FIELD TRIP 3. Thriving or declining? The socio-economic landscape of settlements in a peripheral area (the example of the Roztocze region and surroundings)

Lublin – Różaniec – Ruda Różaniecka/Płazów – Susiec – Zwierzyniec – Obrocz – Zamość

Coordinators: Andrzej Jakubowki, Monika Wesołowska

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

The buses will be marked with a field trip number.

Each trip will take about 10 hours – in Zamość about 18:00.

There is no planned lunch stop. Participants will receive all-day meals in the form of packed lunch (lunch box) and drinks (water, juice).

Lunch boxes will be issued at the parking before departure.