

Program PECSRL 2024, Lublin–Zamość, 9–13 September

	Monday, 09 September Lublin	Tuesday, 10 September Lublin	Wednesday 11 September	Thursday, 12 September Zamość	Friday, 13 September Zamość
08:30–	Registration	Registration	FIELD TRIPS 7:30-18:00	Registration	Coffee
09:30-10:00	Conference Opening	09:30–10:30 Keynote: Wojciech Janicki thematic introduction to field trips		09:30–10:30 Keynote: Raili Nugin	9:00–11:00 S04. Cross-border landscape heritage. Interna-tional contested landscapes as part of identity S09. Heritage of European cross-border landscapes: issues of their identification S13. Planning with an “undisciplined landscape
10:00-11:00	Keynote: Marc Antrop	10:30–11:30 Keynote: Anssi Paasi		10:30-11:30 Keynote: Jussi P. Laine	11:00 Conference Closing
11:00-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-12:00	Poster session	Coffee break		Coffee break	Lunch
12:00-14:00	S01. Adaptability of borders and borderlands in an environment of (in)security. Past, present and future S08. Exploring New Frontiers in Landscape Biography: Beyond Traditional Boundaries S10. Landscape and identity beyond borders	S06. Cultural histories of nature – exploring the border between human and non-human agency in European landscapes S11. Learning from the frontier: Mapping methodologies in heritage and landscape research S12. On the border of rural and urban landscape		S04. Cross-border landscape heritage. International contested landscapes as part of identity S05. Crossing border declivity. Landscape's continuity, disruption and design process through river slopes S09. Heritage of European cross-border landscapes: issues of their identification, management and interpretation S14. Re-building landscapes	Post-conference tour starts at 12:30 Return bus to Lublin 13:30-15:00 (approximate hours)
14:00-15:00	Lunch + Coffee break	Lunch + Coffee break	Lunch
15:00-16:45	S01. Adaptability of borders and borderlands in an environment of (in)security. Past, present and future S03. Borderscape Legacies: Tracing afterlives of conflict demarcation lines in the landscape S08. Exploring New Frontiers in Landscape Biography: Beyond Traditional Boundaries 16:45 PECSRL Board	S06. Cultural histories of nature – exploring the border between human and non-human agency in European landscapes S10. Landscape and identity beyond borders S11. Learning from the frontier: Mapping methodologies in heritage and landscape research 16:45-17:00 Presentation of Journal of European Landscapes	15.30-17:30 City visit with a tour guide (3 groups) 17:30 Meeting with the Mayor of the City of Zamość in City Hall 19:00 Gala Dinner
17.00–	18:00 City visit with a tour guide (2 groups) 19.00 Meeting with the Mayor of the City of Lublin in the Crown Tribunal and Welcome cocktail	Workshop: Engaging with Landscape Policy Early Career Researcher CS2. Political landscapes LRG 'business meeting'

PECSRL 2024 Program, Lublin–Zamość, 9–13 September 2024

Monday, 09 September, Lublin – Faculty of Political Science and Journalism, Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, street Głęboka 45

\(Wydział Politologii i Dziennikarstwa Uniwersytetu Marii Curie-Skłodowskiej - Google Maps\)

08:30–	Registration
09:30-10:00	Conference Opening
10:00-11:00	Keynote: Marc Antrop – Thirty sessions of the PECSRL in rapidly evolving European landscapes and research
11:00-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-12:00	Poster session (Hall)
12:00-14:00	S01. Adaptability of borders and borderlands in an environment of (in)security. Past, present and future (1/2) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Anna Moraczewska – Explaining border adaptability in the international environment based on IR theories 2. Charlotte Veal – Dance, power, politics: on choreography and security at the El Paso-Juarez border 3. Michał Łuszczuk, Dorothea Wehrmann, Jacqueline Götze, Arne Riedel, Katarzyna Radzik-Maruszak – European arctic borderscapes, imaginaries of the geographical environment and sustainable urban development 4. Łukasz Lewkowicz – From the conflict area to the Schengen Zone: evolution of the adaptability of the Polish-Slovak borderland after 1918 5. Aneta Bąk-Pitucha – The stance of the Visegrad Group states towards the war in Ukraine – selected aspects 6. Wojciech Opióła, Bartosz Czepil, Karolina Czabanowska – Mass human migrations and dynamics of borderscapes 	S08. Exploring new frontiers in Landscape Biography: beyond traditional boundaries (1/2) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Emily Shakespeare, Maaïke S. de Waal, Gerdy Verschuure-Stuip – Landscape Biography: A Way Forward – learnings from the workshop 2. Jan Kolen – Authorship in landscapes 3. Gerdy Verschuure-Stuip – Landscape biography; a tool for public participation? Three examples of using landscape biography and micro-stories to involve the public 4. Anna Żemła-Siesicka, Urszula Myga-Piątek – Vertical record of historic changes in the landscape of Ogródzieniec 5. Joseph Sony Jean – Many footprints on the land: a biography of the landscape we share in Postcolonial Haiti 	S10. Landscape and identity beyond borders (1/2) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Katarzyna Pukowiec-Kurda – Does the national border affect the identity of the post-industrial landscape? 2. Claudia Márquez Thomas – Good rural living and identity in landscapes in change of Central Chile (Paine) 3. Martin Reents – Contact zones or conflict zones? The Oder River and the Muskau Arch as socio-material and mental drivers of German-Polish interactions 4. Klara Czyńska, Paweł Rubinowicz – Assessment of cityscape areas according to visibility analysis of key landmarks 5. Seppe De Wit, Isabel Loupa Ramos, Veerle Van Eetvelde – Understanding urban complexity: Untangling physical, mental and administrative borders in the urbanised landscape of Ghent
14:00-15:00	Lunch + Coffee break
15:00-16:45	S01. Adaptability of borders and borderlands in an environment of (in)security. Past, present and future (2/2) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Michał Łuszczuk – Transforming borderlands and borderscapes between Russia, Finland, and Norway: walls, bikes and reindeer 2. Cristina Gómez Johnson – The use of force to guarantee border security in Chile. Whose safety 3. Anna Szachon-Pszenny – The changing nature of the EU's eastern external border – policy implications for legal reform 4. Agnieszka Zaręba – “Way to better life” – migrants (or refugees) on UE borders 5. Laurie Trautman – Emergence of the Canada-United States border as a landscape of political theatre 	S08. Exploring new frontiers in Landscape Biography: beyond traditional boundaries (2/2) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Maaïke S. de Waal, Scott M. Fitzpatrick, Michiel Kappers – Landscape Biography of Walkers Reserve, St. Andrew, Barbados. The layered life story of a sand quarry at Walkers Savannah 2. Maggie Roe, Niki Black – Scrolling stories across boundaries in the Sundarbans 3. Katsuyuki Takenaka – Water-land border as a forefront of dwelling: Implications to Landscape Biography approach from Japanese experience 4. Darijus Veteikis, Ričardas Skorupskas, Jurgita Mačiulytė, Ieva Misiūnė, Julius Mačiulaitis – Spatio-temporal transitions of agrarian landscape affected by the Soviet land reclamation campaign in Lithuanian lowlands and uplands 5. Jan Neefjes – Landscape Biography of the Weerribben Wieden region. A National Park in-between water and land. 	S03. Borderscape Legacies: tracing afterlives of conflict demarcation lines in the landscape <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Dominik Róg – The forest border – opportunity or threat? On the "forest people" living in the forests near the Austrian-Polish border cordon at the end of the 18th century on the example of the Zamojski Family Entail 2. Matéo Le Louër – Rethinking the intangibility of borders: a new approach to conflict resolution? The case of Sudan 3. Emmanuel Brunet-Jailly, Halina Sapeha – Border dispute resolution by third parties
16:45–	PESCR Board
18:00–	18:00 City visit with a tour guide (2 groups) – starts in front of the Crown Tribunal, street Rynek 1 (The Old Town Market Square Google Maps)
	19:00 Meeting with the Mayor of the City of Lublin in the Crown Tribunal and Welcome cocktail

Tuesday, 10 September, Lublin – Faculty of Political Science and Journalism, Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, street Głęboka 45

\(Wydział Politologii i Dziennikarstwa Uniwersytetu Marii Curie-Skłodowskiej - Google Maps\)

08:30–	Registration
09:30-10:30	Keynote: Wojciech Janicki – Roztocze – the eastern fringe or rather heart of Europe? Introduction to fieldtrips
10:30-11:30	Keynote: Anssi Paasi – Tracing the shifting landscape of border studies: positioning the notions of “landscape”
11:30-12:00	Coffee break
12:00-14:00	S06. Cultural histories of nature – exploring the border between human and non-human agency in European landscapes (1/2) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Arjan Conijn, Mans Schepers – Nature-based coastal defence in the Dutch Wadden Sea area 2. Andrew Butler, Annette Löf – Borders of fire and reindeer 3. Laura Puolamäki, Eeva Raika – The Finnish landscape as a mirror of world politics. Translations amidst nature and culture 4. Václav Fanta – Archaeological and environmental heritage of historical parcel boundaries in the Czech Republic 	S11. Learning from the frontier: Mapping methodologies in heritage and landscape research (1/2) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Marilena Mela – Methodological challenges in researching the mutual shaping of landscapes and discourses 2. Pia Nilsson – Creating new borders in historical landscapes 3. Jan Kolen – How landscapes move 4. Julia van Duijvenvoorde – Migrant communities as shifting borderscapes: a study of Palatine place names in the Hudson River Valley 	S12. On the border of rural and urban landscape <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Andreas Haller, Asja Gollo, Oliver Bender – Submerged settlements: changing “operational landscapes” in the Italian Alps 2. Helena Mellqvist – The Connoisseur method – an alternative strategy for managing green spaces in peri-urban settings 3. Vita Žlender – Exploring the borders of peri-urban landscape through people’s perceptions and valuations 4. Antonia Paniza Cabrera, Sara Cortés Dumont, Daniel David Martínez Romera – The transformation of rural spaces: changes in rural landscapes in the urban growth area of the city of Jaén 5. Sebastian Eiter, Ulrike Bayr – People’s perception related to the agricultural landscape: about the potential use of data from a Norwegian national survey in a monitoring programme
14:00-15:00	Lunch + Coffee break
15:00-16:45	S06. Cultural histories of nature – exploring the border between human and non-human agency in European landscapes (2/2) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Michiel Purmer – A century of natural and cultural heritage in the Kampina nature reserve (The Netherlands) 2. Krzysztof Szpara, Beata Gierczak-Korzeniowska, Mateusz Stopa – Natural and cultural heritage as a base for the tourism development in south-eastern Poland 3. Floor van Gils, Elyze Storms-Smeets, Sven Stremke – On the border of agriculture and nature: uncovering design principles for circularity in the Dutch esdorp landscape of Drenthe 	S11. Learning from the frontier: Mapping methodologies in heritage and landscape research (2/2) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Sara Cortés Dumont, Daniel David Martínez Romera, Antonia Paniza Cabrera – Territory and cartographic representation: administrative demarcations through the Ensenada cadastre in the mid-18th century 2. Oleksandr Karasov, Olle Järv, Kamyar Hasanzadeh – Using social media data to elucidate borderscape through cross-border mobility practices: the case of Greater Region of Luxembourg 3. Berthe Jongejan – Research on Monumental Trees “A tree that is old have seen more than a human” 4. Linde Egberts – Tracing methodologies: landscape and heritage research in the Anthropocene 	S10. Landscape and identity beyond borders (2/2) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Jorre Herpels, Seppe De Wit, Tiago Dionisia, Fatima Bernardo, Isabel Loupa Ramos, Veerle Van Eetvelde – Dealing with crisp boundaries and transition zones in landscape characterisations 2. Agnieszka Latocha-Wites – Re-building or construction? Regional identity in the border region of Lower Silesia, SW Poland 3. Laura Hodsdon – Perspectives on landscape identity at the borders of European national minority cultures 4. Tiago Dionisio, Fatima Bernardo, Seppe De Wit, Isabel Loupa Ramos, Veerle Van Eetvelde – Landscape identity definition among migrants
16:45-17:00	Presentation of Journal of European Landscapes
17:00–19:00	Workshop: Engaging with Landscape Policy Early Career Researcher Maggie Roe, Charlotte Veal, Maria Duggan	CS2. Political landscapes <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Andreas Aagaard Christensen, Andrew Butler – Political landscapes – exploring the landscape component of political processes 2. Veerle Van Eetvelde, Ziggy Sabbe, Theo Van der Sluis – The political landscape of the Kalmthoutse Heide 3. Kerstin Potthoff, Matt Cashmore – Different understandings of landscape as a communication barrier? Conflicts between reindeer herding and wind power development 4. José Muñoz-Rojas – The political landscape of olive intensification in Alentejo (Portugal): complexity vs discourses 	Landscape Research Group 'business meeting'

Wednesday, 11 September, Field trips
Lublin – Zamość

The meeting time 7:30

Departure from Lublin 8:00

Parking next to Faculty of Political Science and Journalism, Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, street Głęboka 45

(Wydział Politologii i Dziennikarstwa Uniwersytetu Marii Curie-Skłodowskiej - Google Maps)

FIELD TRIP 1. Landscape changes in the Polish-Ukrainian borderland related to World War II and its consequences in Eastern Roztocze

Lublin – Beżec – Siedliska – Dziewięcierz – Stare Brusno – Nowe Brusno – Narol – Zamość

Coordinators: Ewa Skowronek, Renata Krukowska

FIELD TRIP 2. How the landscape of Poland's eastern borderlands was shaped (the Roztocze example)

Lublin – Sąsiadka – Szczepreszyn – Kawęczyn – Nowe Brusno – Radruż – Zamość

Coordinators: Krzysztof Szpara, Teresa Brzezinska-Wójcik

FIELD TRIP 3. Thriving or declining? The socio-economic landscape of settlements in a peripheral area (the example of the Roztocze region and surroundings)

Lublin – Różaniec – Ruda Różaniecka/Płazów – Susiec – Zwierzyniec – Obrocz – Zamość

Coordinators: Andrzej Jakubowki, Monika Wesołowska

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

The buses will be marked with a field trip number.

Each trip will take about 10 hours – in Zamość about 18:00.

There is no planned lunch stop. Participants will receive all-day meals in the form of packed lunch (lunch box) and drinks (water, juice).

Lunch boxes will be issued at the parking before departure.

PECSRL 2024 Program, Lublin–Zamość, 9–13 September 2024

Thursday, 12 September, Zamość – 1st High School, street Akademicka 8

\(I Liceum Ogólnokształcące im. Jana Zamoyskiego - Google Maps\)

08:30–	Registration
09:30-10:30	Keynote: Raili Nugin – Mapping the intangible: geopolitical dynamics in rural borderscapes
10:30-11:30	Keynote: Jussi P. Laine – Revisiting the innovative potential of the borderscape concept in the times of crises
11:30-12:00	Coffee break
12:00-14:00	S04. Cross-border landscape heritage. International contested landscapes as part of identity (1/2) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Zdeněk Kučera, Alexandra Kruse, Lena Athanasiadou, Viviana Ferrario, Yves Michelin – Contested European cross-border landscapes: challenges for management of their identity and heritage 2. Edwin Raap, Michiel Purmer – The Atlantikwall. How to deal with contested heritage in light of spatial transformation? 3. Anu Printsman – Borders, infrastructures, and sacrifice zones in oil shale landscapes 4. Elyze Storms-Smeets – War in Arcadia. An historical geography of Dutch country houses and estates in World War II 	S05. Crossing border declivity. Landscape's continuity, disruption and design process through river slopes <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Giacomo Dallatorre, Serge Schmitz – Rediscovering river slopes in urban and peri-urban landscape. Identification and discussion in Liège's agglomeration 2. Serge Schmitz, Lauriano Pepe – Discovering the places beyond the scenery of the river slopes surrounding the city 3. Sharon Anna Somma – Urban conflicts: relations between the Aniene river and the Pietralata district. 4. Giovangiuseppe Vannelli, Angela D'Agostino, Piero Zizzania, Francesca Atlante – A rural hub in the Ufita Valley. Towards possible intersection between design strategies and local resources: the Hirpinia Station and Vallata 5. Juraj Lieskovsky – Degradation of traditional vineyards in Slovakia by abandonment and soil erosion: A case-study of Vráble 	12:30-14:00 S09. Heritage of European cross-border landscapes: issues of their identification, management and interpretation (1/2) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Jos Cuijpers – Retrogressive research in historical geography 2. Asja Gollo, Andreas Haller, Oliver Bender – Expanding heritage and landscape beyond borders. Reflections on challenges and potentialities of linguistic minorities' cross-borderness 3. Alexandra Kruse – Green Belt of Europe – from death zone to lifeline. Different consideration and different meanings on both sides of the former border
			S14. Re-building landscapes <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Andreas Aagaard Christensen, Veerle Van Eetvelde – The morphology of land use reform 2. Andrew Butler – Building back the burnt landscapes 3. Eric Pawson – Re-building red zone landscapes: creative opportunities for recovery in a post-earthquake Antipodean city 4. Michał Sobala – Is it possible to rebuild the traditional landscape of seasonal mountain economy? The example of the Western Beskids (Poland) 5. Veerle Van Eetvelde, Andreas Aagaard Christensen – Re-building a cultural landscape after war destruction. The case of Flanders Fields 6. Hannes Palang, Marju Kõivupuu – Closing up: no war please!
14:00-15:00	Lunch
	15:30 City visit with a tour guide (3 groups) – starts in front of the City Hall, street Rynek Wielki 13 (Ratusz w Zamościu - Google Maps) 17:30 Meeting with the Mayor of the City of Zamość in City Hall 19:00 Gala Dinner in Luneta Restaurant (Restauracja Luneta - Google Maps)

PECSRL 2024 Program, Lublin–Zamość, 9–13 September 2024

Friday, 13 September, Zamość – 1st High School, street Akademicka 8

\(Liceum Ogólnokształcące im. Jana Zamoyskiego - Google Maps\)

8:30 – Coffee

09:00-11:00	S04. Cross-border landscape heritage. International contested landscapes as part of identity (2/2) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Jan Kolen – The concentration camps as cross-border landscape heritage 2. Michiel Purmer, Henk Baas – Castle-ruins in the European landscape: changing perspectives? 3. Patrik Olsson – Deer-parks in Scania, Sweden – a contested cultural and natural heritage 4. David Koren – A vanishing monumental border revitalised 	S09. Heritage of European cross-border landscapes: issues of their identification, management and interpretation (2/2) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Zdeněk Kučera – Landscape as adopted heritage: remembering deserted settlements along the western border of Czechia 2. Andrzej Jakubowski, Tomasz Studzieniecki, Joanna Kurowska-Pysz – Lithuanian-Polish Tourist Cross-border Functional Area: from shared landscape to a single tourist destination 3. Theo van der Sluis, Veerle van Eetvelde, Ziggy Sabbe, Irene Bouwma – Restoring ecosystems in cross-border landscapes – the case of the Nature Restoration Law 	S13. Planning with an “undisciplined landscape” <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Jørgen Primdahl, Lotte R. Petersen, Mette J. Jessen, Lone S. Kristensen – Green transition of a river valley: Linking landscape histories, functions, and current policy aims 2. Merham Keleg – The ‘siloed’ green belt practice in Cairo, Egypt. 3. Henk Baas – How to bring the landscape biography into planning? 4. Andrew Butler, Annette Löf – Wildfire, taskscapes and the landscape planner
11:00-11:30	Conference Closing
11:30-	Lunch
	Post-conference tour starts at 12:30 Return bus to Lublin 13:30-15:00 (approximate hours)		